NEW IN THE LIBRARY

- ♦ When the Roll Is Called A Pyonder: Tales From A Mennonite Childhood. Diana R. Zimmerman, who grew up in a traditional Mennonite family, writes her memoir with grace, humor and sensitivity.
- ♦ All Praise Be to the Lord: Memories of George R. Brunk II. Widely known as an evangelist akin to R. A. Torey, Brunk also carried deep concern for theological education; he served as a university faculty member and as dean of Eastern Mennonite Seminary. Rhoda Weber Neer Brunk, who wrote this was married to George for less than a year prior to his death.
- ♦ Everyday Mercies by Evie Yoder Miller is a novel by the author of Eyes at the Window. A ripple among three generations of a Mennonite family occurs when Carrie attempts to take on the task of taking the family farm in a new direction.
- ♦ Called to Be Amish. Of the few outsiders who have joined the Old-Order Amish—and stayed—since 1950, Marlene C. Miller is one of them. Turning Amish has proven to be anything but simple for this former majorette. Nearly fifty years later, Marlene is still living out God's call as an Old Order Amish woman.
- ♦ Somewhere Safe With Somebody Good is a new novel by Jan Karon. It is another look in to life in Mitford and the question "Does Mitford still take care of its own?"
- ♦ Seeing Your Face Again & Finding Love at Home are # 2 & 3 in Jerry Eicher's The Beiler Sisters series.
- ♦ The Half-Stitched Amish Quilting Club, The Tattered Quilt & The Healing Quilt is a series by Wanda Brunstetter telling the story of widow Emma Yoder who shares her passion for quilting with a patchwork of individuals of varying backgrounds that leads to healing. Each book includes one of Emma's favorite recipes. See opposite page for one.
- ♦ Making Friends Among the Taliban by Jonathan Larson tells the story of peacemaker Dan Terry who was attacked and killed in Afghanistan. You can also watch the DVD of his story Weaving Life, which is also in our library.
- ♦ Lamentations, Song of Songs is number 27 in the Believers Church Bible Commentary with commentary by Wilma Ann Railey & Christina Bucher. Galatians is recently published but not yet in our library.

About Believers Church Bible Commentary Series:
"Accessible to lay readers, useful in preaching and pastoral care, helpful for Bible study groups and Sunday school teachers, and academically sound, the Believers Church Bible Commentary Series foregrounds an Anabaptist reading of Scripture."
- ♦ For parents of children ages 3-5: We have an updated version of Carol Greene's Why Boys and Girls Are Different to help parents communicate Christian values to their children in the area of sexuality.
