GATHERING

Call to Worship: Psalm 93 Responsive Reading

Leader: The Lord reigns

East: He is robed in majesty.

Leader: The Lord is robed.

West: He wears strength around his waist.

Indeed, the world is established; it cannot be moved.

East: Your throne has been secure from ancient times;
you have always been king.

Leader: The waves roar, O Lord, the waves roar,
the waves roar and crash.

East: Above the sound of the surging water, and the mighty waves of the sea,

West: The Lord sits enthroned in majesty. The rules you set down are completely reliable.

All: Holiness aptly adorns your house, O Lord, forever.

In Prayer:

A Thanksgiving Prayer:

Lord, we give thanks this week, when family and friends will gather to eat and drink, realizing how blessed we are. We also remember those among us that have less to be thankful for.

We remember and pray for the farm workers whose labors made our meal possible.

We remember and pray for the poultry worker, the canner, the truck driver, the grocery store clerk, and the cooks who made all of our meals possible.

And while we pray in thanks, we pray all people receive enough through their labors so that all can live in security and that no one go hungry for lack of decent wages. Let us seek and find ways to share our nation's bounty with all those in need.

In Jesus' name. Amen
