In Prayer:

God, we praise you for our gathered faith community to worship, make decisions for this congregation, and fellowship together. We ask for your guidance and wisdom. Today especially, as we celebrate fall, we're grateful for the changes this season brings and ask for your blessings on our church family. Lord also, we ask for your mercy in this world. Give your grace and wisdom to world leaders, and bring your peace to the conflicts affecting so many. Provide comfort to those who are suffering. Help those with health concerns of all kinds and ease the concerns of those experiencing challenges and frustrations, whether known or private.
