In Prayer:

Lord, we remember the mothers who have gone before us. For their love, sacrifice, struggle and joy, we thank you.

Lord, we remember those who have not given birth to us, but are mothers to us. For their gift of themselves that they have given, we thank you.

Lord, we remember the women who struggle with fertility, for those women whom society labels as less in their childlessness, for those women who have lost children. For their tears, for their strength, for their wisdom, for their lives, we thank you.

HYMN FESTIVAL

Saturday, May 24 at 4pm

You are invited to join in a historic celebration of faith, music and heritage at the Anabaptism at Five Hundred: Hymn Festival here at Zion! The Hymn Festival will feature a historical narrative by Ken Rodgers, Hesston College music professor, tracing the evolution of hymns and texts central to Anabaptist worship over the past 500 years. Singers from surrounding churches are invited to join Bel Canto Singers to form a choir that will lead the event and combine with audience participation to create a communal expression of faith and song. Music will be led by Dr. Russell Adrian, director of choral activities.

The Bel Canto Singers will also be performing at Zion on Sunday, May 25 as part of the worship service, as well as at various locations around Oregon for their Singing Through Generations tour from May 20-28. See flier in the foyer for more details.
