

In Prayer:

Pray for our churches around the world. No matter who our neighbors are or what our circumstances, Jesus calls us to live out the gospel of peace in words and actions as a community. May we follow that call to love courageously.

“Do not be daunted by the enormity of the world’s grief. Do justly now. Love mercy now. Walk humbly now. You are not obligated to complete the work, but neither are you free to abandon it.”

- Ryan Dowd

JUDY HALL UPDATE

After years of cognitive decline, the decision was recently made to transition Judy to home hospice care. Harold and immediate family continue to care for her and they deeply appreciate your prayers. The Zion Church community has been such an important part of Judy's life but due to the nature of her condition in-person visits and phone calls are often upsetting for her, which increases the strain on those caring for her in this sensitive time. Mailing cards expressing your care, concern, and encouragement are appreciated and welcome. We will do our best to update you when new information is available.

PRAYER REQUEST

Coqui Conkey, the interim pastor of Beaver Creek United Church of Christ, has requested prayer from us. This past weekend their building was vandalized. Rocks were thrown through multiple stained glass windows and into their fellowship hall. This is currently being investigated as a hate crime.
