

In Prayer:

Dear God, in this season of Lent, we're reminded of our difficulties and struggles. Sometimes, the way has seemed too dark. Sometimes, we feel like our lives have been marked by such grief and pain we don't see how our circumstances can ever change. But, in the midst of our weakness, we ask that you would be strong on our behalf.

Lord, rise within us. Let your Spirit shine out of every broken place we've walked through. Allow your power to be manifested through our weakness so that others will recognize it is You who is at work on our behalf. We ask that you trade the ashes of our lives for the beauty of your Presence. We choose to give you thanks today and believe that this season of darkness will fall away. Amen.

We have completed entering ALL 5,718 books into the online catalog!! There are also DVDs, CDs and magazines in our collection.

We have reorganized the Children's books according to subject for easier accessibility.

There are also some new book additions in our library. One is a children's book: A Seed Grows by Antoinette Portis, donated in memory of John Gingerich. Two others in the library that were referenced by Lucinda J. Kinsinger in the December 2025 Anabaptist World in her article, "The Blissful Sound of Silence". These are: The Hidden Power of Electronic Culture, and Reconnected. We added a book recommended by Josh Hockman-Chupp called Children Like Us by Brittany Penner. Other new books added to the library recently can be found in areas marked, "New Books".

We have also added two shelves in the library for a jigsaw puzzle exchange. Look for it!

Happy reading and puzzling!

NEW BOOK STUDY TOPIC

Last week, the Sunday School class that meets in the East Skylight Room began a new book study, and it's not too late to join!

Four Gifts by April Yamasaki draws on the ancient scriptural command to love God with our heart, soul, mind and strength, while helping readers reflect on the spiritual dimensions of attending to one's own needs, identifying priorities, and finding true rest in a fast-paced world. Copies of the book can be ordered online.
