

WORDS OF Gratitude

The kindness and love we felt from you, our church family, during the last couple weeks of recovery from my shoulder surgery, was very special to us. The flowers, visits, meals, and snacks were deeply appreciated, as well as the prayers and kind words. It's great to be a part of this wonderful group of people!

- Sheryl and Charlie Gingerich

In Prayer:

Heavenly Father, we grieve the loss of lives to war and violence. May Christ be a steady comfort and safe resting place, may hate be replaced with love, violence with peace, and darkness with God's light. Amen.

ZION CHURCH LIBRARY

Charity Kropf Memorial Library

We have completed entering ALL 5,718 books into the online catalog!! There are also DVDs, CDs and magazines in our collection.

We have reorganized the Children's books according to subject for easier accessibility.

There are also some new book additions in our library. One is a children's book: A Seed Grows by Antoinette Portis, donated in memory of John Gengerich. Two others in the library that were referenced by Lucinda J. Kinsinger in the December 2025 Anabaptist World in her article, "The Blissful Sound of Silence". These are: The Hidden Power of Electronic Culture, and Reconnected. We added a book recommended by Josh Hockman-Chupp called Children Like Us by Brittany Penner. Other new books added to the library recently can be found in areas marked, "New Books".

We have also added two shelves in the library for a jigsaw puzzle exchange. Look for it!

Happy reading and puzzling!
