

In Prayer:

Dear Lord, be with our campers this weekend. We pray for a meaningful time of fellowship, for the growth of relationships in our faith family, and a restful time of communion together. We thank you for the ability to be able to have varied experiences as a church family and to see each other in a different light. Lord, please keep them safe, keep them comfortable and give them a blessed weekend.

We also thank You for the gift of song: for the ability to praise you in harmony for this life you have gifted us. Bless this time together in song, as we raise our voices to glorify you. Amen.

NEW ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL SERIES Beginning Sept. 13 in the East Skylight Room

Join us for a new six-week Sunday School class featuring short video clips from renowned Old Testament scholar Walter Brueggemann's, The Narrative of Justice. Brueggemann explores justice throughout the biblical story, from the Old Testament through the Gospel, framing justice as a relational, life-giving commitment. Together, we'll consider how God's vision of justice challenges the exploitative and consumer-driven values of "Empire" in both ancient and modern life. The class will be facilitated by Andy Coulombe.
