In Prayer:

Loving God, when the troubles of this world weigh heavily on our hearts, remind us that we are not alone and that your love remains steadfast. When we feel discouraged or overwhelmed, renew our hope and help us see the goodness, kindness, and light that still surround us. Give us strength to face what we cannot understand, compassion for those who are hurting, and courage to be a source of peace in a troubled world. Help us to trust that even in the darkest times, your love is at work and your light cannot be overcome. Hold us close and give us peace. Amen.

- Cynthia Hockman-Chupp

Thank you to everyone who attended our Fall Congregational Meeting last Sunday! The turnout was fantastic! As Zion continues to navigate this season of transition - from leadership and physical structures to Pastor Jana's retirement and the new chapter ahead - your voice matters more than ever. We are grateful for everyone who takes the time to share their thoughts, ask questions, and help shape the future of our church together.
